Julie Raneda is a Partner in Schellenberg Wittmer's International Arbitration Practice and the Managing Director of the firm's Singapore office.
A highly regarded practitioner, Julie regularly represents clients in complex international commercial, investment and sports arbitration matters. She has acted as both counsel and arbitrator in arbitrations globally, governed by diverse legal systems.
Julie is one of the few International lawyers in Asia qualified to provide civil law advice across a broad spectrum of jurisdictions, setting her apart as a versatile and sought-after advisor in cross-border disputes.
She also serves as Co-Chair of the firm's Sanctions Group, bringing deep expertise in advising clients on international trade sanctions.
Her core areas of specialization encompass construction and engineering, energy, pharmaceutical and life sciences, supply and manufacturing, distribution and international sales. Julie's exceptional work has earned her recognition in leading independent legal directories, including Chambers and Partners, Benchmak Litigation and Lexology.
She is also a respected leader in the business community, serving as President of the Swiss Chamber of Commerce and Industry in Singapore (SwissCham) and a Board Member of the European Chamber of Commerce (Singapore), (EuroCham Singapore).
